

Congressman A. Donald McEachin

Congressman A. Donald McEachin was elected to represent the 4th Congressional District of Virginia in the United States House of Representatives on November 8, 2016. Thus far in Congress, McEachin has been elected to serve as co-president of the Freshman class, appointed as Regional Whip, and serves as a member of the Leader's Environmental Messaging Team.

Representative McEachin proudly represents his district on the House Armed Services Committee and House Committee on Natural Resources. As a member of the House Committee on Natural Resources, Mr. McEachin serves as the top Democrat of the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee and sits on the Subcommittee on Federal Lands. Mr. McEachin also sits on both the Readiness and the Seapower and Projection Forces subcommittees under the House Armed Services Committee. He was also appointed by House Leadership to serve on the Franking Commission.

Mr. McEachin is the son of an Army veteran and a public-school teacher who proudly grew up in the area that he now represents in Congress. Prior to his service in Congress, Mr. McEachin served as a legislator in both chambers of Virginia's General Assembly for most of the last two decades. Throughout that time, he has fought to protect our most vulnerable citizens — and to defend the rights of all Virginians. Mr. McEachin is a dedicated to public servant who leads efforts that will promote equality, curb gun violence, protect our environment, and advocate for military personnel and their family members.
