

Holy Week & Easter Worship at MCC Richmond

Sunday, March 28, 10:45am – Palm Sunday Worship

On this day we remember and celebrate Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem which marked the beginning of the end of his earthly ministry and begins our observance of Holy Week.

Thursday, April 1, 4 to 6pm – Private Confession and Words of Forgiveness

In reflection and self-examination, this is an opportunity to share and receive healing from a troubling, painful, difficult experience or behavior in privacy with your pastor. Come, share, hear, and be reminded that God loves you more than you could ever imagine, you are forgiven, and you are set free from whatever brings you concern and personal pain.

Pastor Kenny will be available in-person or via Zoom to listen and, in confidence, share words of God's transforming love, forgiveness, redemption and hope.

7pm – Maundy Thursday Service of Remembrance

On this night we remember that Jesus gathered with the disciples ... his best friends ... to share the Passover meal. On this night, we remember how Jesus came for us, how Jesus broke bread and shared the cup, how Jesus gave his life for us that we might know forgiveness, that we might know that death does not have the final word. On this night, we remember ...

Friday, April 2, 12 to 3pm – Good Friday Meditation, Reflection, Holy Communion

The sanctuary will be open for self-guided prayer, meditation, reflection, and Holy Communion.

Come and enjoy this peaceful opportunity to sit quietly with God and experience the liberating healing and peace that passes understanding. Come, share with, listen to God, and be reminded you are loved by the Divine, celebrated, named, and claimed as the Beloved of God ... just the way you are.

Pastor Kenny will be available to listen and, in confidence, share words of God's transforming love, forgiveness, redemption and hope.

7pm – Good Friday Service of Song, Sacred Readings, Reflection & Silence

In candlelight, we gather in silence as we prepare for worship, reflection, prayer, singing, and hearing the story of the Rag Man. We will leave in silence as we contemplate and wait for the celebration of Easter.

Easter

Sunday, April 4, 10:45am, Easter Festival Worship

On this day we celebrate the gift of New Life and the Resurrection of Jesus. We also give thanks and celebrate the transforming gifts of God: victory of life, renewal, hope, and the reality that Love always wins!
